

Attending to Children's Lifeworlds: A Focused Dialogue with Educators in Golden, B.C.

This Early Childhood Pedagogist Program focused dialogue invites early childhood education professionals into conversation about observation and documentation practices that attend to children's lifeworlds and contribute to curriculum-making processes.

Join pedagogists Jenny Rae Wilder and Maria Jeong for a follow-up dialogue connected to Conversation XII Part III: Attending to Children's Lifeworlds. Together, we will revisit ideas from the webinar and consider how observation and documentation can support educators in noticing children's relations, ideas, and experiences as curriculum takes shape in everyday practice.

Participants are encouraged to watch the original webinar on April 16 prior to attending. Event details can be found at ecpn.ca/events.

This is a free event. Light refreshments will be available. Attendees will receive professional development hours.
